TENUTA SAN GUIDO SASSICAIA BOLGHERI 2017 TUSCANY, ITALY

Earthy & Savoury - the real deal. As Super as a 'Super Tuscan' gets and needing little introduction this is wild, exotic and completely sumptuous. Full-bodied with ripe fruit and spicy notes this is the sort of wine that makes you chuckle while drinking, amused by just how special it is. Sit back, and enjoy.

DESSERT WINE, PORT & SHERRY

QUINTA DE LA ROSA LBV

DOURO, PORTUGAL

Warming & fortified - beautifully smooth this is a classic port in every sense.

Raisins and brown sugar accompany that blackcurrant syrup that can define the port experience. Aperitif, after dinner, with cheese, with coffee. There shouldn't be any rules as to when to enjoy a glass or two.

BALFOUR LATE HARVEST 2018

BARHAM, KENT

Rich & sweet - an English dessert wine...and something rather special. Made from noble rot chardonnay and a wonderful bright gold in colour you are given a balanced sweetness with plenty of marmalade and rich fruits. Team up with a cheeky chocolate brownie or go against the grain and mix with a charcuterie board (it works!). Beautiful.

MUSCAT BEAUMES DE VENISE

DOMAINE DURBAN

RHONE, FRANCE

Rich & sweet - nestled in the hills north of Avignon, the village of Beames de Venise is as stunning as this sweet, fortified wine.

Think honey with a hint of lemon and none of that annoying cloying you may get from lesser sweet wines. This is stunning as an aperitif, or as a treat to accompany desert. Or, if you are after a true taste sensation, to accompany a full blue cheese.

MAURY SOLERA 1928

ROUSSILLON, FRANCE

Warming & fortified - a fascinating wine blended from a mix of vintages (including those of 1928!). It is rich and earthy, not too sweet, but with a definite nutty and slightly figgy flavour. A wonderful talking point, fantastic after dinner instead of port, or to sit alongside an artisan cheese board.
